

Adshare is an online affiliate network that provides advertising solutions for marketers and ad agencies of all sizes while helping web and blog publishers earn digital ad revenue from email activity and visitor traffic on their websites.

The AdShare Network will complement SaleSpider's existing community site by offering cost-effective advertising to allow advertisers to reach many different demographics through vertical targeting using text, banner and rich media. SaleSpider's online affiliate network boasts an extensive number of members and publishers' websites along with a strong support team to help clients reach a wider audience

With over 600,000 members, SaleSpider's AdShare Network leverages the social networks business members and offers benefits to everyone in the equation. SaleSpider's Social Network members earn income from their website traffic. SaleSpider's Advertising clients gain new volume from the extended reach of these member's websites.

"I am truly excited at the possibilities the AdShare Network can provide to small and established businesses. If you have a website or blog, this free feature will help you increase revenue. Our Advertising clients are responding to this opportunity incredibly –it's like a gold rush where everyone wins" says Michael Rolfe, SaleSpider Affiliate Manager.
