Self Serve Advertising on SaleSpider.com allows members to advertise to thousands of business owners daily by location and industry. For as little as $5 a day, small business owners, distributors or agents can be reached with precise targeting. It takes only 2 minutes to set up and it's a great way to expand a small business without spending a lot of money.

Members who advertise will receive comprehensive reports on SaleSpider.com that give them contact information of anyone or any business that has responded to their ad. They can view and edit their profiles to make it more appealing to their target audience, which will increase their number of responses.

A SaleSpider.com member, Reginald P Carelock, of New York, said, "Self Serve Advertising on SaleSpider is great. I love it. I just launched a website nationally... I will personally come and launch my site on SaleSpider (it is the best)".
