

SaleSpider.com's job center allows members to find new careers and search job listings and post new job opportunities. Members can post a resume and perform a job search for current job opportunities in the work place or find work from home careers by browsing through a particular job listing.

Employers, recruiters, and employment agencies can post job ads with a job description, search and connect with potential employees.

Russell Rothstein, SaleSpider's founder says "Everyday new announcements concerning layoffs or bankruptcies flood the media. Our business social network is all about helping people navigate this storm by either starting their own business or finding opportunities in the small business segment from other business owners"
